A TRIP TO KOREA

Ш "This house is where the men live, "said Kong Chong Lee, as we came near to a long low house, in the middle of which was a rocm cr rasegae way which had no sides towards the gerden, tut it had a roof and connected the two ends of the house," Is where the men live, The rocms are on the east are where my fatherlives, and the rcoms on the west are for my brother who is the eldest scn."

And this big house had a blue tile reod which turnned back at the edges just like a big lily cpening. We go though a gate into another garden like the one we have come from, with a pine tree and a girko tree and red and yellow and blue flowers growing in the garden, and there is another house here with a blue rcof which turns back like a lily, but the garden is not so large and the house is not so large es the house where the men live. This is the house where the women and the children and the servants live. "Ihis house has three rooms, one for my mother, one for my brother's wife and the children and one for the maid. "says Kong Chong Lee. "My family are here waiting to welcome us. And dinner is also waiting for us. You will now have dinner in the real Korean style.
